Christmas. So, I would like to share with you a little DIY project that I did. It's the real one, not the scene in the movies. In our family, ever since I was a child, we have always celebrated Christmas in the old tradition of a fun filled time with family, friends, food and drinks. In fact, one of the new year's resolutions for us is to keep the old traditions simple in our home, and make it an ultimate gathering space for us. Christmas Wreath DIY You will need: Damp cloth Window or doorframe Step by step instructions: Take the picture above and use it as a reference to cut the dowel into the size you desire. I used a 1 in 1.5 in dowel, which was perfect for me. The glue helps hold the layers together. Shiny the wood When the glue is dry, wrap a smooth layer of glue around the middle and leave it there. Once dry, wrap around the bottom and tie around it. Trim the extra Once dry, trim the excess. Now that you have the final product, see how it looks in your windows or door frame. So, there you have it. How easy was that? Get you own unique look by always decorating something. I might be adding a few new DIY ideas in the coming days and weeks so don't forget to follow me. 11 comments: Wow! This is my first visit to your blog and I must say, you have a gift with the DIY's you share. I like this wreath so much and I love how they used your "pattern" as a base. The way you've chosen to use it is better than the way I would have. I think I will have to make one for myself after I finish my current project and I will share it with you. Thank
